YOUR FORECAST

You can expect heavy snow today. Then just about the time when your parents are done cleaning off the driveway, more snow will come. Expect tired and grumpy parents.

Sports Roundup

A surprise finish to the Stewardville church baseball tournament: 94-year-old Cletus Jones hit a home run. When asked about it Cletus said, "I had to do it, I wasn't getting any younger."

SERVING LINE

When I was a little boy my parents told me the story about the angels that visited Abram. I was surprised that Abram didn't recognize right away that they were angels. Maybe they had their wings tucked away, I don't know.

What I learned from that story was that we should be kind and serve the people around us as if we are serving God. We should also serve people without expecting something in return. That is the truest form of serving. I challenge each of you to do something for someone else today. Go and serve like Jesus did!

Scoop

1 Peter 4:10

"As each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sale: Toothbrush Collection

Toothbrush collection for sale. Sixty-four identical toothbrushes are for sale. We got them for a family reunion, and lost track of whom they belonged to. If you buy the entire collection, we'll throw in Uncle Ernest's false teeth as well. Call 555-4498.

NEWS

New Stop Light

Stewardville is getting a new stoplight in downtown. Pedestrians, watch out for cars.

RECIPE

Uncle Bob's Broccoli Cookies

There's still plenty of time to be the first to order.

STewardSHIP JACK & Friends

McDoggie, I was one of five puppies in my family!

I learned a lot.

I learned to serve, they were all younger than me!

What was that like, pepe?

What did you learn?
