Sports Roundup

The 11th Annual Jump Roping competition ended in a surprising note last week when last year's champion 9 year-old Annie Jones came in second place behind Bobbie Francisco's frog, "Hopper."

Your home is one of the greatest places where you can serve God. First of all, your family is there. They see you at your best and your worst. This is why imitating Jesus is important. Jesus was always willing to forgive people. Jesus also was ready to meet the needs of the people around Him. You can do all these things at home.

Secondly, your home can be used to minister to other people. Even though the world is getting more crowded, people are becoming lonelier. Inviting people over to eat or play games, or just to spend time with you is being a good steward of your home. Some of Jesus' greatest times on earth were spent visiting His friends; Mary, Martha and Lazarus at their house. Visiting other people can be refreshing. Yes, our home is a special place, but we should use it to bring people closer to God. Turn your house into God's workshop. He will do amazing things through you!
