Sabbath is the day of rest. It is not a day of a 24-hour nap. It is important to understand the difference. God gave us the Sabbath to spend with Him. It is a memorial of God being our Creator. So what are some good ways to spend our weekly holiday with God? Jesus made the Sabbath to be about spending time with God. Sadly, the Pharisees made it about rules. They were so focused on the rules that they forgot that God had made the Sabbath to spend with Him. Jesus said, "Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." There are many different ways to get close to God. Personally, I like to be in nature. It helps me slow down in life. I'm not thinking about what I want to do after Sabbath, because I'm doing what I enjoy--just relaxing and having a conversation with God. Remember, a conversation goes both ways. Sometimes I talk, while other times I listen. The important part is realizing that the Sabbath was created by God to spend time with you. In fact, God created you so He could spend time with you. I can't imagine anyone better to spend time with than God. Can you?
